17 STIPULATION

18 The parties, Irineo Alvarez-Chavez and the government, acting through their respective 19 counsel and subject to the Court's approval, stipulate that the hearing date currently set for May 20 6, 2013, be vacated and that the Court set a new hearing date of July 1, 2013, at 1:30 p.m. The 21 parties further agree and stipulate that the Court extend the briefing schedule for supplemental 22 points and authorities the court requested from May 1, 2013, to June 1, 2013. The reason for the 23 continuance of the sentencing hearing is as follows.

24 The defendant is facing a violation of supervised release in the District of Arizona, based 25 on his 2007, conviction for a violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326, in case 26 numbered 07CR00379-PHX-NVW. PSR ¶ 28. Defense counsel spoke to Assistant United

1 States Attorney James R. Knapp, of the District of Arizona, and Mr. Knapp does not oppose the 2 transfer of supervision and the resolution of the violation in the Northern District of California.
3 Defense counsel has also spoken to United States Probation Officer Daniel Prather, District of 4 Arizona, who informed counsel that he will initiate the Form 22, process. Officer Prather
5 informed defense counsel that transfer of supervision and disposition of the Supervised Release
6 violation will need to be approved by United States District Court Judge Neil V. Wake.
7 Consolidation of the current case before this court and the supervision violation from the District 8 of Arizona will conserve valuable judicial resources which include transportation costs which 9 would be needed to transport Mr. Alvarez-Chavez to Phoenix, Arizona, judicial time, and 10 attorney expenses. For these reasons, the parties request that the Court continue the sentencing 11 hearing to July 1, 2013.

12 Defense counsel has conferred with United States Probation Officer Benjamin Flores,
13 and he does not object to the continuance nor the date of July 1, 2013.
